Early 2010 will see The Loungs release their second album "Big Wow" on Fresh Hair Records. As this album will contain no singles, The Loungs's collection of B-Sides are sitting in the dark being unloved... As we speak, one has just succumbed to consumption.

On 30th October, The Loungs, in association with Fresh Hair Records, will be releasing the first ever B-Side to a Non-Existent A-Side EVER!!!

And what could make this monumental occasion any better?

Well, these B-Sides to non-Existent A-Sides will all be FREE-FREE-FREE!!! Yes, that's right! If you sign up to The Loungs's very own mailinglist at www.theloungs.co.uk then every blue moon you could be enjoying a very-special-treat* all for nothing. And once enough have been released then you'll be able to download the artwork and make your very own unofficial album.

Why on earth are such a great band* as The Loungs giving away stuff for free?

Read this extract from WTL's diary and all will become clear...

"Back in our day, you'd head down to Our Price or Music Zone (ignoring the old man humming Demons to himself) and buy the latest short-player by yer favourite band. After spinning the first track of the CD, you'd take it out, turn it over in a full rotation (360°), pop it back in and play tracks 2-4... Those were the days... And every now and then, just maybe you'd chance upon a gem of a tune that no sane person in the world would pay good money for... That's what we should do..." said Jamie, as he brushed the hair from between his eyes. And it was in his eyes that I could see he was searching for something... What it was I couldn't say, but it was important to him and in that way, it became important to me too.

So these tracks are just going to be terrible songs not worthy of being on an album?

That's 100% correct, but not just that, they'll be so much more! Some may even have you questioning "What makes a song a song and not just a bunch of noise?" - Good times indeed...
